

The Office for Postdoctoral Scholars
The Graduate School of Biomedical Sciences
The Graduate Student Body Committee

Invite you to a Career Information Discussion

Career Options: Intellectual Property Law

Daniel W. Young, Ph.D.

Patent Agent, Wolf, Greenfield & Sacks, P.C.
and GSBS Alumnus

&

Josepha Parente, Esq.

Legal Hiring Manager
Wolf, Greenfield & Sacks, P.C.

Dan Young received his Ph.D. in Biomedical Science from UMMS in 2005 and did his post-doctoral work at the Novartis Institutes for BioMedical Research and the Department of Systems Biology at Harvard Medical School. His work at Wolf, Greenfield & Sacks, P.C., includes assisting clients in patent prosecution and IP due diligence primarily in the areas of biotechnology, and biomedical research.

Jo Parente holds a JD degree from New England School of Law. She manages the hiring and selection of technology specialists at Wolf, Greenfield & Sacks, P.C. The firm is exclusively focused on Intellectual Property Law and represents corporations, emerging companies, academic/research institutions, and venture capital / investment firms.

Thursday, March 18, 2010

3:00-4:00 PM Amp II, S4-102

Refreshments will be served